

Easter

The good news of the resurrection will never get old. Why?

Because we are all in need of a second chance at a new life and a sustained belief in the miraculous.

Your faith that God can still perform a good work in the midst of crisis allowed Send Relief—the Southern Baptist compassion work collaboration of the IMB and NAMB—to show up in tangible ways for traumatized families in Ukraine displaced by Russian aggression, for survivors of Hurricane Ian here at home, for Turkish and Syrian earthquake refugees and so many more.

This belief in the restorative power of Jesus led to 90,000 new believers and 2.5 million people served through Send Relief projects around the world.

Southern Baptists, we have a lot to celebrate this Easter Sunday!
